
CAL FIRE NEWS RELEASE

California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection

CONTACT: Mike Mohler
Information Officer
951-377-8380

RELEASE DATE: July 29, 2015

Lowell Fire Evacuation Warning Changed to Advisory Level

The evacuation warning for the Lowell Fire has been changed to an advisory level. Residents will be allowed into these areas with proper identification. Please use caution as emergency personnel and equipment continue to work throughout the areas. The public is asked to stay vigilant to any changes of the following evacuation advisory areas:

Red Dog Road East of Greenhorn Creek

You Bet Road East of Greenhorn Creek

Chalk Bluff from Brady Road to Buckeye Road

Buckeye Road to Lower Greenhorn Road

Lower Greenhorn Road from Buckeye Road to Banner Quaker Hill Road

Cascade Shores Community

Lower Hill Road from Preston Road to Negro Hill

###