KERN COUNTY EOC - WILDFIRE INFORMATION.

September 11, 4:15 PM

Recommended Evacuation

Wildland fires are threatening the community of Stallion Springs.

The community of Stallion Springs is currently under a recommended evacuation.

A recommended evacuation means that the fire is an imminent threat and all persons in the evacuation area are strongly advised to leave and seek shelter away from the fire area. A recommended evacuation will likely be the last warning given.

You Kern County emergency authorities recommend that all persons in the community of Stallion Springs evacuate as soon as possible.

An emergency evacuation center will be opened at Jacobsen Middle School, 711 Anita Drive in Tehachapi.

At this point, only the community of Stallion Springs is under a recommended evacuation. Other communities in the area remain under a precautionary evacuation. You will be contacted again if the situation changes.

Please make sure your neighbors are alerted. Please stay tuned to you local television and radio stations for more information as it becomes available. If you need additional information please contact the Kern County Call Center at (661) 873-2680 or Kern County Information and Referral Services at 2-1-1.
